SUMMARY COURT

Application for Protection Order

Section 12 Licensing Ordinance 1994

The circumstances giving rise to this application are as follows:-

TO THE CLERK OF THE SUMMARY COURT:

I am the aforementioned applicant. I am proposing to transfer this existing licence into my name. In the interim I therefore apply for a Protection Order pursuant to Section 12(1) of the Licensing Ordinance 1994 authorising me to sell intoxicating liquors by retail in the above named premises as are authorised to be sold therein by the current licensee to be consumed either on or off the premises.

I confirm that I will, upon notification from the Clerk to the Summary Court, notify the Chief Police Officer of the hearing at least 7 days before the hearing date and return to the Clerk to the Summary Court a Certificate of Service.

I understand that failure to comply with these requirements may lead to my application failing.

I DECLARE THAT THE PARTICULARS GIVEN ABOVE ARE TRUE.
